

ELEPHANTS REST UP FOR GREAT FOOD BATTLE

Batteries awaiting the whistle that will start the thirty-day grapple. Between two of the most prominent elephants in the New World, the football players of Yale and Harvard are today resting up for the big battle in the Harvard Stadium tomorrow afternoon.

While both elephants will indulge in a light steam drill and run through a few form exercises as we go to the stadium for the contest, this is not considered work. Both teams are in fine condition, and ready to put up the best fight in them.

Both teams are confident but neither is overconfident. Coach Houghton, and Coach Phil both realize that a hard fight is coming, and that the team which will have to play a better game of football than the other team has shown this far this fall.

Every regular on either team will be in the lineup at the start of the game. Heavily matched are the teams that it is believed that will play an important part in the great struggle. Many believe that the game, if it is not a nothing to nothing contest, will be decided by a fumble.

Odds on Yale. The odds on the game for the past few days have been 10 to 1 in Yale, but it is expected that now money will be sagged on the contest when the teams lineup for the kickoff.

Very little money is being wagered by the audience at the moment and the reason for this is that a great deal of the Harvard and Yale money is now in Yale, having been loaned when the Tigers conquered the Crimson and Blue.

The Yale team is quartered at the Woodland Park Hotel. This morning the entire squad, fifty strong, received a massage and a haircut, and were put through their practice drill, ending, as is their custom, in the barn near the hotel being used.

Short Signal Drill. The players were also run through regular formations as to keep their muscles in perfect working order. The practice formations were run through by the team, for after might be turned out for the big steam drill waiting for the new light.

After the practice the team were given a shower and a haircut. The Harvard team, having been taken for a drive through the Metropolitan Park yesterday, have a more relaxed and comfortable feeling than the Yale team.

Henry Clay Beattie's Confession.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 24.—Before his execution to-day Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., gave this confession to his spiritual advisers: "I, Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., desirous of standing right before God and man, do, on this 23d day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details were not true, but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances, remains. For this action I am truly sorry, and believing that I am at peace with God, and am soon to pass into His presence, this statement is made."

Beattie's confession was brief, containing but fifty-one words, and was not given until Beattie had been dead nearly four hours. It was made public following the conference between the ministers who consoled the prisoner in his last hours and Henry Clay Beattie, Sr.

The ministers and the aged father agreed to make it public, and this was done after the conference ended.

Come in for Your Thanksgiving Clothes EARLY

READY with such a showing of bright, clever new Suits and Overcoats as Boston has never seen before—thousands upon thousands of them, not piled up on counters like readymades but each garment hung individually on racks, all pressed and ready to slip on. And such style, such appearance, such fit, such service. All the newest, cleverest English and American styles are perfectly expressed all a year in advance of readymades. Try this out—see how impossible it is to match at a readymade store the grace of our beautiful English Raglan Coats, the smartness of our new English soft roll coats, the dash and style of our new soft woolly English fabrics or such exclusive shades as Chestnut-Browns, Royal-Purples and Blue-Grays.

But the "big noise" is our at all prices—due to our endeavor to make up now the Fall business we lost in the delay attending the remodeling and opening of the new store. This is the biggest clothing buying week of the season and GEORGES offers the greatest clothes buying opportunity of many seasons.

What GEORGES Extra Values Mean

Throughout the entire enormous stock from $12 to $40—the values are immense. Those at $12.50 and $15, two of the most popular prices, are nothing short of phenomenal. At $12.50 and $15, we are offering you Suits and Overcoats, all GEORGES beautiful Custom Model Clothes that we actually intended to sell this season at $18, $20 and $22.50, and we show as much variety at these two prices as most stores do in their entire stock.

THANKSGIVING TURKEY PLENTY

Best of Thanksgiving dinner table will be served by an abundance of turkey. Reports received today by wholesalers and dealers of turkey in the effect that large shipments are being rushed by express from the West for the local market are ground in this opinion.

The prevailing retail price is from 25 to 28 cents per pound for good quality Western turkey—about the same as last year. The choice Vermont variety of the bird is at 35 cents per pound. It is expected that the large shipments on route to it will keep the prices at this level, despite the large Thanksgiving demand.

And the good folk of Boston can thank the weather man for this abundance of turkey. Early reports from the Middle West indicated that there would be a shortage of turkey about this time, though there were plenty of pointers in the hands of the carriers, owing to the warm weather early in the fall which had kept the turkeys late and sluggish and the consequent late and scanty shipments.

Christmas, when it could be shipped in.

WHAT THANKSGIVING NECESSARIES COST

Here's what your Thanksgiving dinner will cost you:
Turkey, 25 to 28 cents per pound.
Fowl, 18 to 22 cents per pound.
Cranberries, 15 cents per quart.
Pumpkins, 15 to 20 cents each.
Pumpkin, 2 to 3 cents per pound.
Spinach, 25 cents per peck.
Carrots, 5 cents per quart.
Cauliflower, 20 to 30 cents per head.

The market in prime condition at a better price.
The other adjunct to the Thanksgiving dinner—cranberries—are in fair condition. The selling price is considerably higher than last year, and the crop is small. The difficulty in getting the fruiting of early frost, and the consequent late arrival of the crop, has caused a shortage of the fruit. The price of the fruit is about the same as last year. FIND UNKNOWN IN ROAD IN SUBURBS

A man whose identity has not yet been learned by the police was found unconscious in the roadway adjoining Van Hook bridge, near the Boston Indian line, early today, and was removed to the Massachusetts General Hospital. He was well-dressed, but had no papers on him that would establish his identity. He is about 35 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs 180 pounds, has dark hair and eyes, and was wearing a dark business suit and black derby hat. He has no money.

566 DEER FOR STATE HUNTERS

Five hundred and sixty-six deer have been killed in the five western counties of Massachusetts during the first half of the open season of the fish and game commission. This number is about one-third of the total killed in the open season last year, so the hunters will have to be more active or more lucky if they expect to exceed the 1910 killing.

Most reports are from among sportsmen at the new from Freedom Hills that the forested areas of white oak have been killed. It is thought that Mr. Kory was master of the general instruction of hunters to spare the famous brook deer. It was definitely one of the best of white oak has long been about Suffolk Co., and which people considered a certainty.

Worcester county leads in the number of deer killed, the return showing 180 for the first three days of the season. The number of hunters hunting and the number of deer killed in the county are about the same as last year. No Need for a Pastry Flour

If you buy flour from low-grade wheat—
Flour imperfectly ground—
Flour not properly sifted—
Then you'll need another flour—a better flour—when you come to make dainty desserts.

But, if you buy Gold Medal Flour—

Made of premier wheat—
20 times ground—sifted 10 times through silk—

You'll need no better flour for anything. You can't get any better.

It's a bad mistake, for any purpose, to get inferior flour.

You save nothing by it. You get less bread—immensely poorer bread. And part of it can't digest.

Flour is all-important. If you knew, as we know, all the vast difference, you would always insist on the leading flour of the world—

HEADACHE

A Recent Discovery Stops Headaches in One Minute by the Watch.

A recent discovery enables physicians to prescribe a harmless external application that almost instantaneously stops headache without taking into the system any of the harmful and dangerous drugs and powders that have been so indiscriminately used for the treatment of headaches and neuralgia.

If you suffer from headaches "the morning after," or from any manner whatever, go to some first-class drug store, such as Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., and ask for a half-ounce of yellow balsam (which is also a more powerful remedy than any other) and rub of the same with a small brush, "inside and back of the ear," with a small brush, and your headache will be gone in five minutes. The danger, you don't know, is more than 25 cents. A good place is to carry it with you always.

TAFT FIGHTS "CHINA" "GRAB"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The State Department, it can be stated upon authority, has received information that Japan and Russia are anxious to have their great powers join them in landing troops in China to establish a new, local form of large area in consequence of the Chinese revolution.

Their proposal is that the area so taken shall be divided among the participating powers at the discretion of hostilities by the United States.

Conferees were held by Secretary Taft and Secretary Knox conferred on the situation in China. As a result it was decided to defer indefinitely the sending of United States troops to China.

President Taft and Secretary Knox refused to let this country be a party to such a scheme as is contemplated for the division of China and will send troops to that country only when it becomes necessary to protect the lives and property of American citizens.

HELD AS THIEF, HAS $12,000

Catherine McCann, twenty-four years old, of Fall River, in whose possession were found diamonds, cash and jewelry worth $12,000, arrested near the city of Boston, was held in court today on a charge of the theft of seven watches valued at $31.50 from a hotel store.

She admitted that she had been arrested here fifteen years ago for shoplifting.

The bank books showed that she had made several deposits of $200 at a time, and had more than one thousand dollars at a time. The police said that her system was to go into a store, take some thing, and the next day send it back to the store and get the cash value of it instead.

The woman, who was lost and gray, was dressed in cheap clothing and the diamonds, she was arrested by police inspectors after being trailed by the store detective, a woman. She spent the night in jail.

Jewelry found on the woman included diamonds, pearls, and other valuables, each valued at $100.

CROSS SEA TO MAKE DEBUT

The Misses Maud and Louise Hunsweil, daughters of Hollis H. Hunsweil, for whose coming out a brilliant ball has been arranged recently in the Hotel Somerset, have traveled from England, where they now live, that they may make their debut in Boston.

The affair arranged for their debut is to be one of the most brilliant social events for some time, an expense having been spared in the decorations, the music and the list of invitations includes the names of most of the well-known in Eastern society.

Most of the girls in the younger sets of Boston and New York have been invited to meet the Hunsweils, whose home is now at "King's Beaches," Apsal, England.

Boston's transit system is the subject of an interesting feature in the article to be printed in Sunday's AMERICAN.

ZE GREAT CARUSO SHATTERS IDEALS AT PICTURE SHOW!

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Caruso has shattered the ideals of art. The Metropolitan Opera House (where he is now a moving picture patron). He was taken in his initial plunge in his new form of relaxation and Antonio Scotti paid the bill.

Caruso and Scotti were past the entrance to a moving picture show when the former's attention was attracted by a conspicuous sign. "Come on in," it read.

"Let's go," said the $2,000-a-night-tenor to his baritone friend. "It won't cost much."

"Fosh!" replied Scotti. "Why waste time?"

But they paid the twenty cents and they saw it.

If you live or work in Beverly you will be greatly interested in a big feature article to be printed in Sunday's AMERICAN.

DEATH DOOM FOR BOSWORTH

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 24.—The jury in the case of Arthur Bosworth, charged with the murder of eighteen-year-old Mary La Brie at Essex Junction last June, today returned a verdict of "guilty, with capital punishment." They reached their decision late last night. The verdict was announced in court today.

This is the first case where a jury has passed on an act by the Legislature, returned a verdict of guilty with the death penalty. The jury was composed of twelve men.

In the Bosworth case, the jury heard the evidence of the victim's mother, and the young prisoner's plea of guilty, and, therefore, as no verdict by the jury was necessary, no recommendation for capital punishment could be made.
